30 kms. from Aurangabad. Ellora represents to the world the finest and greatest in terms of sheer magnificence of Indian sculpture. The awe-inspiring mammoth Kailash Temple is carved out of solid rock. It is dedicated to Mount Kailash of the Himalayas the abode of Lord Shiva. This monolithic structure is a very rare phenomenon that demanded the most careful planning, based not on what was added but what was removed! Ellora is a repository of Buddhist, Hindu and Jain religious expression, a sheer volume of information in carved pageantry. Thirty four shrines synthesize Indian religion and Indian passion for sculpture. The Ramayana and Mahabharata are also depicted here in carvings as also the many faceted personality of Lord Shiva. Ellora is a priceless page out of history.
